Letter from Fauquier

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

MARSHALL, Va., Apr. 7.—The average small boy, as well as the old one, is ever happy on the return of Easter, for both enjoy the sport of fishing. Since the departure of winter our community has begun to enjoy better health; farm and garden work, the repairs and construction of new houses go on vigorously and everybody is up and doing.

Mr. Lafayette Payne is going around re-adjusting the assessment roll. He thinks there is a more hopeful outlook for an increase of the State revenue.

Fauquier county is one of the most popular and wealthy counties in the State. The soil is productive, cattle, sheep and stock of every description abound and then the success of public education is visible among all classes.

On Wednesday of next week, Rev. Dr.
Dinwiddie, so favorably known as an evangelist throughout Virginia, will commence a series of religious services at the Presbyterian church. As the Episcopal building—Trinity church—is undergoing extensive repairs, the usual Lenten services were held in the Baptist church.

Lately the writer was privileged to attend a meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association at Bethel Academy. This association has been in existence at Bethel for 15 years and has a goodly number of the cadets in active membership with it. During the present session, there has been a series of interesting lectures delivered. As a passant, it may be added, that the academy was never more prosperous. Among the pupils are several from Alexandria, Mr. Zimmerman and others from the vicinity of our city.

In connection with the late notice in the GAZETTE of the death of Mr. Fairfax H.
Whiting, it may be added, that this excellent gentleman was born at "Morven," near Alexandria, and was descended from Mr.
Whiting, who was one of the commissioners appointed during the revolution to organize the Virginia navy. His father was Carlyle Fairfax Whiting, who was married to Sarah M. Little. Mr. Whiting married Miss Margaret Douglas, of Alexandria, who died at Marshall some years ago and is buried at "Meadow Grove," the Carter homestead.

His son Douglas is a merchant at Marshall.
According to "Burke's Landed Gentry" of England, the Whiting family of America are descended from three brothers who came from England one year after the settlement of Jamestown—in 1608, two of the brothers settled in New England and one at "Elm-ington," the family residence in Gloucester county, Va.

The M. Ds. here are mourning over the collapse of their medical organ, the Virginia Medical Advance. The patrons of medical lore hope that it is only a condition of suspended animation, especially as its editor, Dr. H. M. Clarkson, has now on oyster diet.

A WOMAN SCARES CALIFORNIANS.—A month ago great excitement was created in Oakland, across the bay from San Francisco, by a series of revival meetings conducted by Mrs. Woodworth, better known as "the me-meric revivalist." Many persons, mostly young women, were thrown into trances during the services, and several became permanently insane. Finally the police suppressed these gatherings, and Mrs. Woodworth left for Santa Rosa, after predicting the destruction of Oakland and San Francisco by a tidal wave on April 14. One of her chief disciples, a man named Erickson, also made the same prophecy.

Now that the alleged day of doom is near at hand the strong influence exercised by the woman is causing a great exodus from Oakland. A number of credulous people have left for the mountains after selling their property for nominal prices. Many San Francisco people have caught the contagion and are fleeing to the mountains. Shortly after midnight Saturday night a handsome young woman who had attended Mrs. Woodworth's meetings created a sensation by running down Washington street, Oakland, en deshabille, loudly screaming:

"I'm coming, good Lord! I'm coming!
Wait, only wait for me!"

She continued to beg the Lord to save her from the deluge foretold by Mrs. Woodworth.

MEDICINAL.

Take Simmons Liver Regulator One Dose

100 Dollars

DEAR S. L. R.—FRIENDS: I consider one dose of Simmons' Liver Regulator worth $100. I was constipated, had headache, could eat nothing with satisfaction or appetite; had the blues and felt altogether out of sorts. I resorted to blue mass, calomel, quinine and all remedies suggested, but only obtained temporary relief. One dose of S. L. R. did me more good than the $100 worth of doctors and doctoring. Respectfully, T. C. MARKLEY.

I have been a teacher for twenty years, and during that time have had repeated attacks of headache, produced by torpid liver, and I have been entirely cured by the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator. I found it to be of so mild a character in its action as not to interfere, in the least, with my duties in the school room. To those similarly situated and subject to same, I cannot too highly recommend Simmons' Liver Regulator.
